"I'm so glad I live in a world where there are Octobers."

- L. M. Montgomery

There's a lot to love about October.

Fall leaves crunching under your feet, pumpkin spice everything, football games, sweater weather, apple cider, Oktoberfest, and a vibrant landscape of changing colors.

But the merchants of the Philadelphia Wholesale Produce Market will tell you one of the best things about October is the produce. Our close proximity to lush farmlands means that we have a steady supply of local fall favorites including apples, beets, broccoli, leeks, mushrooms, brussel sprouts, cabbage, cauliflower, celery, chard, cranberries, eggplant, kale, peppers, potatoes, pumpkins, squash, turnips, and even watermelon.

In addition, our merchants search far and wide to bring you the best the world has to offer 12 months a year. Exotic, specialty, organic, tropical, pre-cut, custom ripened, repackaged – we cover all your produce needs.

Visit us at pwpm.net or, better yet, experience October at the Market for yourself where we have “all the best, all right here.”

Happy Healthy Halloween!

Halloween doesn't have to be only about candy and junk food. You can balance the season of mischief and sugary treats with a dose of wholesome fruit and vegetables. The challenge is creating an atmosphere of fun décor and festive food that makes everyone happy. We invite our customers - grocery stores, mom and pop shops, restaurants, chefs, caterers, and families – to come up with some creative and healthy ways to highlight produce this season. Send your photos to info@pwpm.net or tag us on Facebook, Instagram, or Twitter (@pwpmproducemkt).

Whether it's apple bobbing, pumpkin painting, cranberry garland, or nourishing nibbles, inspire us with your spooky, sublime, or sidesplitting vision!
