Come What May!

It's been said that April is a promise that May is bound to keep. At the Philadelphia Wholesale Produce Market (PWPM), we honor that pledge by presenting our customers with the finest fruits and vegetables the world has to offer. We all yearn for the bounty of luscious local produce as well as a consistent supply of global delights. We think Mother Nature would approve of the variety, quality, and value that you can find in the City of Brotherly Love.

Here are some of the items our merchants are looking forward to in May:

Local asparagus & spring dandelion

Spring vegetables moving up the east coast

Tomatoes, squash, corn, & eggplant

Fiddle head ferns, ramps

A full slate of items for Cinco de Mayo (May 5th)!

Mexican Hass avocados, all sizes of limes, Mexican cilantro, plum tomatoes, jalapenos, serranoes, poblanos, habaneros

Cotton candy grapes

Watermelon from North Carolina

Apples and pears from South America

Berries and honeydew from California

California peaches, nectarines, apricots, plums, pluots, cherries & grapes

Lychees, rambutans, & cactus pears from Mexico

Vidalia onions from Georgia - extra sweet due to the low amount of sulfur in Vidalia, Georgia

Mexican grapes

Champagne mangos from Mexico

Mother's Day (May 12th) items California figs, potted flowers – tulips, mums, hydrangeas, hyacinths, rainbow carrots, romanesco, fennel, edible flowers & squash blossoms, watermelon radish, Italian tarocco blood oranges (still at their peak!)

BBQ Season produce (think Memorial Day, May 27th)
Corn, tomatoes, watermelon

Our merchants search locally and globally to bring the best to your plate.
Cross our hearts.
