June at the Market

Ahhh, summertime. It's more than just a season. It's a place deep in our souls where we turn up the volume in the convertible as the wind blows our worries away. June ushers in the playful months when we can savor the gifts of nature - juicy peaches, sweet corn, crunchy cucumbers, thirst-quenching watermelon...

Fresh produce is at the heart of so many memories. The merchants of the Philadelphia Wholesale Produce Market love to share their expertise - and maybe a story or two - about what's available this time of year. From local to specialty items, our knowledgeable team can guide you through the process of buying and selling produce at the peak of perfection. Let us take you back to the carefree days of the roadside farm stand or introduce you to exotic delicacies from the other side of the world.

Celebrating a Decade of Fresh!

On June 5, 2011, the Philadelphia Wholesale Produce Market rolled out the red carpet as it opened its doors at 6700 Essington Avenue. A long, rich history of produce trading in Philadelphia culminated into opening North America's most advanced fully-enclosed, fully-refrigerated produce facility. 10 years later, we are still paving the way as a leader in cold chain management, product safety, staging, loading, security, and recycling as we provide the region with fresh produce all year long.

Happy double digit birthday to us!
