November, a Time of Thanks and Giving

Thanksgiving has proven to be a favorite holiday of many Americans. It's a time to gather together with family and friends and reflect on all that we appreciate in our lives. And, of course, much of that involves good food.

“Gratitude can transform common days into thanksgivings, turn routine jobs into joy, and change ordinary opportunities into blessings.” – William Arthur Ward

We give a nod of gratitude to everyone along the supply chain who provides fresh produce to our region. Whether it's a local farm or a faraway port, the hard-working men and women who grow, harvest, inspect, buy, sell, and transport produce are the backbone of our industry. As wholesalers, we are proud to be a part of the system that puts fresh food on your store shelves and dinner tables.

The Philadelphia Wholesale Produce Market wishes everyone a healthy, peaceful Thanksgiving. Visit us at pwpm.net or, better yet, experience November at the Market for yourself where “fresh is our life’s work.”

New York Produce Show and Conference

Mark your calendar for December 13-16, 2021!

The New York Produce Show and Conference is a world-class event in a world-class city. This four-day event includes networking opportunities, a one-day trade show of over 400 companies, retail “thought-leader” breakfast panel, educational micro-sessions and tours of the region’s vibrant industry, including local retailers, wholesalers, foodservice distributors, urban farms and unique eateries.

The Philadelphia Wholesale Produce Market will once again participate at the trade show on Wednesday, December 15th. Join us at booths 252-256 and we’ll introduce you to the coldest man at the NYPS! Take a selfie with “Chilly Philly” and he’ll give you a warm beanie hat in return. Oh, and did we mention that we’ll be serving up our fresh veggie and Italian hoagies? Back by popular demand, straight from the City of Brotherly Love.

Hope to see you there! For more information, visit nyproduceshow.com

Thank a Veteran on 11/11!

Every year, November 11th, Veterans Day, honors and remembers military veterans who served in the United States Armed Forces.

Originally celebrated as Armistice Day, it commemorated the end of World War I, formally recognized on the “11th hour, of the 11th day, of the 11th month” in 1918.

In 1954, the holiday was changed to “Veterans Day” to pay tribute to all veterans who honorably served in wartime or peacetime.

November Dates to Celebrate!

Monday, November 1 – World Vegan Day
Tuesday, November 2 – Election Day
Thursday, November 11 – Veterans Day
Saturday, November 13 – World Kindness Day
Sunday, November 14 – National Pickle Day
Wednesday, November 17 – World Peace Day
Thursday, November 25 – Thanksgiving

Just a Reminder - Wearing is Caring. As of August 12, 2021, masks or face coverings are required at Philadelphia indoor businesses and institutions.
