March at the Market

“March is like a tomboy with tousled hair, a mischievous smile, mud on her shoes, and a laugh in her voice.”

~ Hal Borland (American writer, journalist, and naturalist)

Let's face it. March can be moody. The weather can be erratic, fickle, and quirky. It can fluctuate from mild to wild in the blink of an eye.

While we can't fight mother nature, we can bank on the Philadelphia Wholesale Produce Market to have a steady stream of fresh produce all year long. For generations, our merchants have established relationships with growers around the globe to ensure that fresh fruit and vegetables arrive via truck, train, air, or cargo ship 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Shield yourself from the madness of March and shop in comfort and safety at our fully-enclosed, fully-refrigerated marketplace!

March Dates to Celebrate!

Daylight Saving Time - Sunday, March 12th

In the wee hours of Sunday, March 12, SPRING AHEAD and set your clock forward from 2:00 AM to 3:00 AM. Even though we lose an hour of time, we gain an extra hour of light and the promise that Spring is right around the corner. Symbolically celebrate with these “thyme” recipes from southernliving.com.

Pi Day - Tuesday, March 14th
