December Days at the Philadelphia Wholesale Produce Market

Happy December!

The holiday season is officially upon us and overflows with opportunities to showcase beautiful, healthy, and delicious produce. Think colorful mandarin oranges, earthy beets, ruby red pomegranates, and savory brussels sprouts. Even with the official arrival of winter, there's so much to love about the wholesome goodness that December produce offers.

No matter how you celebrate, the holidays call for goodwill, sharing, and reconnection. What better way to achieve that than through food? That's where we come in.

Whether you're helping your customers make important buying decisions for their stores or restaurants, choosing holiday gifts, or cooking for a small crowd, the merchants of the Philadelphia Wholesale Produce Market can guide you through the ethnic, religious, and cultural symbolism of fruits and vegetables as they relate to Christmas, Hanukkah, Kwanza, and New Year's Eve.

Wishing everyone a peaceful, happy, and healthy holiday season!

Come See Us at the New York Produce Show & Conference!

Mark your calendar for December 5-7, 2023!

The New York Produce Show and Conference is a world-class event in a world-class city. This three-day event includes networking opportunities, a one-day trade show of over 400 companies, retail “thought-leader” breakfast panel, educational micro-sessions, and tours of the region’s vibrant industry, including local retailers, wholesalers, foodservice distributors, urban farms and unique eateries.

The Philadelphia Wholesale Produce Market will once again participate at the trade show on Wednesday, 12/6! Join us at booths 252-258 and we’ll introduce you to the coldest man at the NYPS! Take a selfie with “Chilly Philly” and he’ll give you a warm beanie hat in return. And, of course, back by popular demand, we’ll be serving up veggie and Italian hoagies, fresh from the City of Brotherly Love!

Hope to see you there! For more information, visit nyproduceshow.com
