Giving Thanks for November!

November is practically synonymous with gratitude.

Not only is there Thanksgiving (America's favorite holiday), but there's an appreciation for our veterans, the changing seasons, upcoming holidays, our family and friends, and living in a country where we're free to build a life on our own terms.

At the Philadelphia Wholesale Produce Market, we see first-hand how the land provides nourishment and sustenance and how hard-working men and women grow, harvest, inspect, buy, sell, and transport produce all along the supply chain. As wholesalers, we are proud to fulfill our role in that essential equation, resulting in the freshest fruit and vegetables delivered to your store shelves and dinner tables.

Wishing everyone a healthy, peaceful November. We're grateful for you. Visit us at pwpm.net or, better yet, experience November at the Market for yourself where "fresh is our life's work."

Thank a Veteran 11/11

Every year, November 11th, Veterans Day, honors and remembers military veterans who served in the United States Armed Forces.

Originally celebrated as Armistice Day, it commemorated the end of World War I, formally recognized on the “11th hour, of the 11th day, of the 11th month” in 1918.

In 1954, the holiday was changed to “Veterans Day” to pay tribute to all veterans who honorably served in wartime or peacetime.

A Wonderful Visit!

Big thanks to The Wonderful Company! On October 15th, they sent a huge team of 80 people, including growers from all over the globe, to check out the Philadelphia Wholesale Produce Market!
